A BRITON SEES A BALL GAME Little Stories Told About Baseball

Mike Finn, manager of the Mobile ball club, "that can pessibly be more terrible than an Englishman at a ball game—and that is two Englishmen at a game. Of course, having the name I have, I have never been able to understand why the good Lord let Englishmen happen in the first place, but they exist—and some of them attend ball games.

"One day last summer Mobile and Elimingham were battling desperately in a game that might mean a good chance for the pennant to the victor, and all Mobile had turned out to see the struggle. A youngster who clerks in a basana house had come out to view the strife, and, somehow or other, an Englishman get into the next seat in the navillon. Then began a period of awind agony for the youngster. Every time a play of any kind occurred, the Belton would drive his fits into the laid for a home run. ACK DILLON is considered a wise the Scattle physician claims that he fighter. Dillon has studied the had a paralyzed hand.

Jimmy Lavender recovered from the jimx which has followed him this season long enough to wallop the Pirates by the score of 12 to 2. Only three hits were made off of Lavender. It is reported that Evers threatened to ask walvers on Lavender recently if he did not how up.

2 9 6 After dropping 16 out of 20 games played in the east, the St. Louis Browns are back in their home town. Prior to returning to St. Louis the Stovall aggregation braced and won three out of six games from the White Sox, at Chicago. In Detroit they bagged three out of four games.

Frank Gotch, in a telegram to Emil Klank, his manager, says that he will defend his title once more. Gotch will go on the mat again on Labor day at Benton Harber, Mich., with the winner of the Charlie Cutier-Dr. Roller affair on July 5. A few weeks ago, Cutler won from Roller in Dallas, but a middleweight champlonship, knocked out Bill McKinnon, of Boston, in the July time 10 round bout at the American association park.

McKinnon was floored 11 times, twice in the sixth, twice in the seventh, twice in the ninth and five time in the 10th. He came back gamely after each knockdown.

Institute. Dillon has studied the money making part of the game, and has come to the conclusion that he had better keep busy and make all the money he can while he is young and strong and popular with the sporting public. He is willing apparently to fight every night in the week, and does not insist on a guarantee, but will go on for what he can get.

Charles Webb Murphy, it is believed, is probably prepared to pass some unkind remarks in the general direction of exCub Joe Tinker. Manager Joe and his Reds made it four out of five from the Cubs.

The Cubs can boast of a squad of outlielders larger than that of any major league team. They have two complete sets. Evers's suburban material is long on quantity, but short on quality. the baseball reporter while the scribes sit in the press box and wonder if they will ever witness a game which they won't have to write.

Charles Comiskey and Jimmy Callahan have practically decided to make Johnsy Beall a permanent fixture on the White Soz. Both Comiskey and Callahan think highly of Beall's hitting, and if he can continue at his present cill, he is assured of a berth with the regulars. Mattick, who has been playing in the outfield for the Sox, seems to be alipping somewhat. He has made only one hit in the last six games.

MORRIS AND GEYER FIGHT TO A DRAW

Denver, Colo., July 4.—Carl Morris, of Oktahoma, and Jack Geyer, of Denver, heavyweights, fought 10 rounds to a draw here last night. Morris was the aggressor throughout, his superior reach and weight enabling him to have all the better of the milling in the climbon.

all the better of the milling in the clinches.

Neither man showed much knowledge of the finer points of the game and the referee was constantly compelled to separate them in the clinches. Morris's work in the clinches after the second gave him a hig lead when the 19th round spened. After a few seconds of sparring Geyer started a rally which continued throughout the three minutes, bringing the crowd to its feet wildly shouting for a knockout. Morris was ins distress when the bell rang and referee Poliock gave a draw decision.

rapidly toward the bottom?"

As complying with these simple requests is supposed to be one of the things necessary for one following this trade, we will endeavor to shed a ray of light or the subject.

It might be remarked to start with that the simple and very easily discernible reason is the mere fact that the opposition piles up too many runs, due, no doubt to much loose pitching and a bit of the same brand of field ling at times.

Capside of Better Work.

I have a small hunch that even boss Carr would like the state of the same brand of the dight and times.

Capside of Better Work.

I have a small hunch that even boss Carr would like to know what is actually the matter with his club. He has the material. There is no denying this fact. The material simply has falled to produce as labeled in ad-

This cannot be laid at the door of the manager. No man ever worked harder for the interests of a club than Carr. He has done everything he could even to paying a couple of men major league salaries, to get them, in order to give the fans a winner. The players simply are not playing the class of ball they are capable of and the pitchers are falling atterly to pitch as they should.
